NEWS RELEASE

Chief of Police Richard W. McEachin

---

Date: December 10, 2003

On December 7, 2003 Ocean Shores Police arrested a 38-year-old former Ocean Shores resident for Possession with Intent to Deliver a Controlled Substance. The driver of a pick-up truck flagged Ocean Shores officers down. Officers stopped to see what the driver wanted. The driver of the truck was known to the officers and believed to have a suspended license. Police verified the validity of his license and found that it was in fact suspended. The driver was arrested for driving on a suspended license. A subsequent search of his vehicle revealed methamphetamine. The driver was booked into Grays Harbor County Jail for felony Possession with intent to deliver a controlled substance.
